

MADISON COUNTY OUTSTANDING JUNIOR FAIR RABBIT EXHIBITOR THE HARRY CAMPBELL ROTATING MEMORIAL TROPHY

*APPLICATION FORM Due June 15*

Harry Campbell was a long time rabbit enthusiast and volunteer in Madison county. Using his own cages and equipment, Harry started the Jumpers & Flyers 4H club in 1971. In 1978, he was instrumental in acquiring cages and equipment to establish a Rabbit Barn for exhibitors at the fair. Serving as a club advisor for 10 years, Harry remained an active presence at the fair even after passing that role onto the next generation. The Campbell family continues to support the rabbit project community whether it's helping a youngster get their first rabbit, mentoring club members, or cheering on exhibitors at the fair!

We are honored every year to recognize an outstanding rabbit exhibitor who has had success in the rabbit project and fair exhibition, shown personal growth through accomplishments and setbacks, and demonstrated positive community involvement by helping others become the best they can be.
